

FREE Legal Protection for Cyclists...

Free legal protection for cyclists

About the Scheme

Free to join for you, your family and friends by following the link provided by Gemelli Employee Benefits. Once signed up you will be provided with up to £150,000 of cover for legal costs should you be involved in a road traffic accident that wasn't your fault assuming you have complied with the Terms & Conditions which can be found on the Serious Cycle Scheme website. Provided by Serious Law, a tier one Legal 500 recommended law firm who have been representing the victims of serious cycling accidents across the UK for almost 30 years. Serious Law have taken out and paid for the policy of insurance that covers members of the scheme.

Benefits to Employer

- The scheme is another way of protecting the interests of your employees
- It costs you nothing to provide
- There is no administration involved, your employee deals with the scheme provider direct
- In the event your employee is injured in an accident that wasn't their fault, Serious Law will explore their rehabilitation needs quickly to give them the best chance of returning to work as soon as possible
